

Understanding PDST-Increase Offset Awards (PIOAs)

In early 2020 the University of California's governing body, the UC Regents, approved a plan for annual increases in the Professional Degree Supplemental Tuition at four UC law schools. To provide transparency and predictability for recently admitted and current students, Berkeley Law will offset these increases with new or increased gift aid awards, referred to as PDST-increase offset awards (PIOAs). Therefore, the effective PDST that eligible students are responsible for in 2022-23 will remain constant for the duration or remainder of their J.D. studies, so long as they complete their J.D. within (5) years. Represented below is the amount of PIOA a California resident who enters in 2022-23 can expect over the next two years. Year three cannot currently be determined or guaranteed as the original PDST increases were only approved through the 2023-24 academic year.
